

The Daily Courant.

Saturday, June 1. 1706.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated June 1.

Vienna, May 19.

THE Ratification, on the part of the Malecontents, of the Agreement for a Cessation of Arms in Hungary, is brought hither; and the Count of Althan is sent to Transilvania to inform the Imperial Army there of that Agreement. Prince Ragotski is at present at Topolizani, and M. Defailleurs Envoy of the King of France is with him; 'tis talk'd the Princess Ragotski will shortly go to Carelsbad in Bohemia. The Counts of Taston and Eck are gone from hence for Munster, to endeavour to prevail with the Chapter to elect for their new Bishop the Prince of Lorrain Bishop of Osnabrug: 'Tis talk'd the Bishop of Raab and the great Master of the Teutonic Order, stand Candidates likewise for that Bishoprick; but some are of Opinion the Chapter will choose a Person from among themselves. To Day a Proclamation or Order was publish'd by Sound of Trumper, forbidding all Persons of what Condition, Sex, or Age soever, to correspond with the bann'd Electors by Letters or otherwise.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated June 5.

Vienna, May 22. The Bishop of Osnabrug and Count Wratislau will set out from hence to Morrow or next Day for Presburg, in Order to begin the 25th Instant the Conferences with the Heads of the Hungarian Malecontents for setting on Foot the Treaty of Accommodation. 'Tis said Prince Ragotski will meet them there. Mr. Strepney is not yet return'd from Swabia. Count Mercy having receiv'd 40000 Florins of the Imperial Court, is gone back to the Prince of Baden. Count Sigfrid de Collonitz is sent by the Emperor with a good Sum of Money to King Charles III, and he is to stay in Spain with his Catholick Majesty, in the Quality of Gentleman of his Bed-Chamber. The Duke of Moles has receiv'd Advice by an Expreß from Genoa, that the Siege of Barcelona is rais'd; which is confirm'd by another Expreß from the Duke of Lorrain.

From the Parss Gazette, dated May 29.

Strasbourg, May 20. The 7th Instant the Marshal de Villars sent Detachments which possess'd themselves of Billikum, Germersheim, Neustadt, and Spire. He likewise put Troops into the petite Hollande over against Philipsbourg: Which oblig'd the Enemy to take in pieces the Bridge they had there over the Rhine, so that now they have none higher than Mentz. At the same Time he sent Detachments to Offendorf between the Sor and the Moert, under the Command of M. Stref; to Scatmatt, under the Count du Bourg; and to Seltz, under the Marquis de Nangis, to hinder the Enemy from laying Bridges there. He keeps Men at work on the Fortifications of the Camp of Lauterbourg, and the Lines along the Lauter; which are the easier to fortify and defend, because they are not necessary for more than a League, viz. from Weissenbourg to the Castle of St. Remy; the other part of those Lines as far as Lauterbourg, being inaccessible, by Reason of Woods and Morasses. The Marshal de Villars has rais'd great Contributions in the Palatinate, and in the Bishopricks of Spire and Worms.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated June 4.

Strasbourg, May 24. Yesterday 34 Vessels, with Pontons, and great Store of Anchors, Cordage, Planks, &c. were sent from hence down to the Marshal de Villars's Army; so that it appears that General has a Design to attempt to pass the Rhine.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated June 1.

From the Prince of Baden's Camp at Hubach, May 24. The Prince of Baden having left part of the Troops of the Circle of Swabia to guard the Lines of Buhl and Strohloffen, has caus'd the rest of the Troops of that Circle as also those of the Emperor and others to march down hither: And is come himself from Raftad, and taken up his Quarters at Scheylenhand, to be at hand to joyn 14 Battalions and 20 Squadrons that are posted near Linkenheim: The Marshal de Villars has his Head Quarters still in Spire, but has not yet made any Attempt to pass the Rhine, nor to attack either the Bridge we have over that River at Philipsbourg, or the Fort that guards the Head of that Bridge.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated June 4.

From the Imperial Camp at Linkenheim, May 28. Most of our Regiments are here, and the Enemy are encamp'd on the other Side of the Rhine; but 'tis probable the News we have receiv'd will make them change their Designs; for a Captain of our Hussars has just brought in a French Courier whom he took on the other Side of the Rhine; and by the Letters found upon that Courier it appears the Enemy have been intirely defeated in the Netherlands.

From the Lieden Gazette, dated June 4.

From the Imperial Camp at Linkenheim, May 28. Advice being come to the Marshal de Villars that the Army of the 2 Crowns has been defeated in Brabant by the Allies, he has detach'd part of his Forces to the Netherlands, and sent back his heavy Artillery to Strasbourg; so that now instead of making any attempt upon us, he may think himself happy if he can secure himself from us by his Intrenchments.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated June 5.

Frankfort, May 30. M. Oudstein, General Hompech's Adjutant General, arriv'd here Yesterday at Noon, and after a short stay went on Post for Vienna, being sent to the Emperor with the News of the great Victory of Ramellies: In his Way hither he communicated this News to the Elector of Triers, who who made him a Present of his Picture set with Diamonds to a great Value.

Plymouth, May 28. To Day came in the Warwick, which not long since went as a Convoy for Newfoundland; but meeting with bad Weather, receiv'd Damage in her Hull, Masts, &c. and was oblig'd to return hither to refit. She parted from the West-India and Newfoundland Fleets the 16th Instant, 120 Leagues to the Westward of this Place. A Spanish Ship is come in here from Cadix, bound for London with Wine and Fruit.

Yarmouth, May 29. To Day came in a Pink from Rotterdam, bound for Dublin. The Master reports, that on Monday last, he being one of 17 Sail bound from Rotterdam for Apfom, the West of England, and Ireland, under the Convoy of the Centurion and 2 small Men of War; about Eight Leagues off Goree they fell in with the Dunkirk Squadron, being 7 Men of War of from about 60 to 40 Guns, and 4 smaller Ships, which he supposes to be Privateers; that Squadron chased the Centurion, who cutting away her Boats from her Stern got from them, as did also one of the small Frigates, but what became of the other he knows not. He being the Sternmost of the Fleet shap'd his Course so as to come hither; but believes most of the other Merchant Men fell into the Enemy's Hands.

Harwich, May 30. Yesterday the Adventure and Tartar Men of War sail'd from hence with several Merchant Ships under their Convoy bound for Hambourg. The Weefel Sloop is arriv'd here from Holland; and brings Advice, that 12 Dunkirk Men of War have fallen in with a Fleet of Merchant Ships bound from Holland for England, and taken several of them: But knows not whether their Convoys the Centurion and Diake are taken or not.

The first and most approved Angelick Tincture for Coughs. began to be expos'd to Sale October 10. 1704. and for more than one whole Year escap'd unmoles'ted by Counterfeits. It is a great and stupendious Medicine, having sav'd the Lives of many, doing the Cure on the Spot after a Thousand other things fail; when it is taken into the Mouth the Cough doth instantly Cease, and after 3 Days return no more, the Truth whereof is sufficiently evinc'd by Examples of Cures in former Advertisements. N. B. This excellent Secret is no where to be had save at, John's Coffee-house in Swithin's Alley by the Royal Exchange, and at the 7 Stars under St. Dunstan's Church in Fleet-street. Price 1 s. each Bottle.

The Essay towards a Proposal for Catholick Communion, &c. lately Publish'd by a pretended Minister of the Church of England. Printed at large, and answer'd Chapter by Chapter, whereby it appears that the Author's Method of reconciling the Church of England with that of Rome, is fallacious, and his Design Impracticable. By N. Spinks, a Presbyter of the Church of England. Printed for R. Sars, at Grays-Inn-Gate in Holborn.
